WINSLOW PEOPLE WE HAVE LOST

Robert James Adair

August 18, 1961 – August 8, 2026

Robert James Adair, 64, of Fayetteville, Arkansas, passed away on August 8, 2026. Born on August 18, 1961, to Robin Adair and Norma Adair, Robert was a loving son, father, brother, and friend.

Robert spent his life in the Fayetteville community, where he was known by many as a fantastic auto mechanic. He loved working on vehicles and took great pride in his craft. With his sharp skills, determination, and willingness to help others, Robert saved the day for countless drivers who depended on him to keep them safely on the road. This was his happy place, and he was at his best when he was doing the work he loved.

Robert was not always the best version of himself, but his love for his family never wavered. He was always overjoyed by a visit, a phone call, or the chance to spend time with those he loved. Despite life's challenges, family remained close to his heart, and he cherished every opportunity to reconnect and share time with them.

Robert was preceded in death by his father, Robin Adair.

He is survived by his mother, Norma Adair of Springdale, Arkansas; his son, James Adair of Natchez, Mississippi, and his three children; his daughter, Jennifer Adair of Ridgecrest, Louisiana, and her two children; his daughter, Amber Adair of Fayetteville, Arkansas, and her three children; his daughter, Kat Ross of Tacoma, Washington; and his daughter, Ashley Rawls of Austin, Texas, and her two children. He is also survived by his brother, Alan Adair of Winslow, Arkansas; his sisters, Lyn Adair of Springdale, Arkansas, Teri Adair of Springdale, Arkansas, and Toshia Andrews of Goshen, Arkansas; along with numerous nieces, nephews, extended family members, and many dear friends.

Though his passing leaves a void in the lives of those who knew and loved him, Robert's memory will live on through the many lives he touched, the friendships he built, and the family he cherished.

A memorial service celebrating Robert's life will be held at a later date. Family and friends are invited to attend and share their memories of Robert.

Forever loved, forever remembered, and forever missed.

Virginia Alice Risley

December 21, 1941—August 20, 2026

Virginia Alice Risley, 84, a resident of Prairie Grove, Arkansas, passed away Thursday, August 20, 2026 in Springdale, Arkansas. She was born December 21, 1941 in Blackburn, Arkansas, the daughter of Emmett W. and Ethel Bessie (Miller) Winn.

She is preceded in death by her parents, one son, Randall Risley; one grandchild, Orey Hopper; and three siblings, Vivian Winn Tindall, Troy Winn, and Harley Winn.

She is survived by her spouse

Harold Risley of Prairie Grove, Arkansas; one sister, Norma Winn Watson of West Siloam Springs, Oklahoma; two daughters, Shirley Rieff and husband Tracy of Farmington, Arkansas and Gayla Danner of Prairie Grove, Arkansas; One daughter-in-law, Charesse Risley of Prairie Grove, Arkansas; seven grandchildren, Kristal Clark and husband Justin, Bethany Rutherford, Bradley Rieff, Miranda Larson and husband Shade, Katie Risley, Kaid Hopper and wife Mecayla, and Maci Danner; seven great-grandchildren, Breyden Clark, Beau Clark and fiancée Kendyl Hooper, Kobi Collinsworth, Landon Risley, Noah Larson, Pyper Newell-Larson, and Miles Hopper. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions can be made to Gideons International in honor of Virginia. P.O Box 641 Prairie Grove, AR 72753

Family ask if you wish please wear pink as it was Nanny's favorite color.

The family will receive friends Monday, August 24, 2026, 5:00 PM - 6:00 PM at the Luginbuel Funeral Home.

Funeral Service will be held 2:00 PM Tuesday, August 25th, 2026, at Centerpoint Church of God in Prairie Grove, Arkansas. Burial will be in the Prairie Grove Cemetery in Prairie Grove, Arkansas.

William Brian Allen

October 10, 1957 - August 23, 2026

William Brian Allen, 68, passed away at home on Sunday August 23, 2026. Known to everyone as Brian, he was born in Gloversville, NY. He was raised with his younger siblings in Lurgan, Northern Ireland by their parents Bill and Edith Allen.

Brian dreamed of following in his father's footsteps to become a police officer. After returning to the United States, he eventually met and married his wife of thirty-one years, Christiane. He was able to achieve his goal by joining the Daytona Beach Police Department where he proudly served 14 years as a police officer.

Brian and Chrissy picked out a beautiful retirement property in the mountains near Winslow, Arkansas. They made their dream come true when they finally built their log home in 2012, where they spent their retirement days watching deer and hummingbirds hang out in their front yard.

Brian is predeceased by his parents Bill and Edith Allen, brothers Davy Allen and Ronald Allen, sisters Anita Main and Linda Hine, his first child Erica Allen, and his first great grandchild Jensen.

Brian is survived by his loving wife Chris Allen; his children Elaine Allen, Pauline (Nigel) Jennett, Louise (John) Kemp, Wayne Allen, Carol Dickinson, and Elizabeth Dickinson; grandchildren, David Allen, Danny Lam, Ethan Allen, Brandon Allen, and Billie Jean Allen; great grandchildren, Reuben and Rowan Allen, and his brother Trevor (Kerri) Allen, and numerous other family members.

A celebration of life will be held at Devil's Den Café on Saturday October 24th.

In lieu of flowers, please consider donating to "Tunnel to Towers" in honor of Brian. <https://dogood.t2t.org/Donate>

Norman Albert Weiss, December 4, 1953~September 12, 2026

Norman Albert Weiss, 72, of Winslow, Arkansas, passed away peacefully on September 12, 2026, at Circle of Life in Springdale, Arkansas.

Norman was born on December 4, 1953, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, to Helen and Eli Weiss. After graduating from high school, he attended trade school in Philadelphia, where he developed a lifelong love of Grateful Dead music and cars.

From there, Norman lived a nomadic life, traveling to different places, camping, and enjoying life on his own terms. Eventually, he found his way to a cherished piece of property in the country near Winslow, Arkansas, where he put down roots and called home for more than 30 years. He loved every bit of the life he built on that quiet, quaint piece of land.

Norman was truly one of a kind—a quirky, curious, independent man with a mischievous spirit who was never afraid to do things his own way. Throughout his life, he was known for his ability to fix just about anything, his willingness to go on an adventure, and his talent for living in the moment with his own unique humor and determination. He loved his dogs and birds, motorcycles, music, and the freedom of the open road.

His lifelong love of motorcycles included both riding and working on them, and he eventually became a member of his beloved motorcycle club. Music was another constant in Norman's life, and he amassed a large collection of vinyl records that reflected his passion and personality.

When Norman met Robin, his life became much bigger. He will be remembered for the way he loved her—even if he never missed an opportunity to give her a hard time. With Robin came a large, loud, and often wild family, and Norman may not have always known exactly what he was getting into. There were certainly times when he may have wanted to run, but in the end, he found his place and became part of the family for the past 27 years.

Robin's children looked up to Norman as a father figure. He showed up, offered help when he could, and became someone they could count on. He may not have always done things the conventional way, but he loved his family in a way that was unmistakably his.

Norman is survived by his wife, Robin; his stepchildren, Tiffani (Keith), Lisa, Kari (Rick), Frankie (Amy), David, and Nikki; daughter-in-law, Megan; grandchildren, Nyle (Haven), Emily, Ryan, Brayden, Kalieb, Madison, Steven, Ricky, Kaiden, Khloe, and Miller; brothers, Ritchie (Linda) and Marc (Arlene); nieces and nephews, Matthew (Brittany), Jason (Robin), Joy (Scott), and Zachary; four great-nephews and two great-nieces; as well as many friends who became like family.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Helen and Eli; his uncle, Sam; and his stepson, Richard.

An informal visitation will be held on Thursday, September 17, 2026, from 5:00–7:00 p.m. at Beard's Funeral Chapel, 855 S. Happy Hollow Road, Fayetteville, Arkansas 72701.

There will never be another Norman. He leaves behind a family who loved him, countless memories, many stories, and several friends whose lives were touched by his unique spirit. He will be greatly missed and lovingly remembered.

The Rise of the Little Horn, Part 2

Daniel 7:8 I considered the horns, and, behold, there came up among them another little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn [were] eyes like the eyes of man, and a mouth speaking great things.

Covering a person's eyes makes them significantly harder to recognize. But with the right technology, scanning the iris can identify someone with nearly 100 percent accuracy. Eyes reveal much about a person.

Eyes are significant in the bible, too, symbolizing intelligence and insight. The serpent tempted Eve in the Garden of Eden by promising that her eyes would "be opened" and that she would "be like God knowing good and evil" (Genesis 3:5).

God's eyes "run to and fro throughout the whole earth, to show Himself strong on behalf of those whose heart is loyal to Him" (2 Chronicles 16:9). When God opens our eyes we "see wondrous things from His law" (Psalm 119:18). And are filled with heaven's light (Matthew 6:22).

In contrast, human eyes are associated with pride and arrogance. "The LORD hates...a proud look" (Proverbs 6:16,17). Isaiah hopes for the day when "the eyes of the lofty shall be humbled" (Isiah 5:15), and God says He will not tolerate "the one who has a haughty look and a proud heart" (Psalm 101:5).

Today's verse describes the little horn as having "eyes like the eyes of a man." This points to an arrogant power that works with intelligence, Shrewdness, and foresight. It's a description that accurately portrays the little horn.

As we consider the characteristics of this little-horn power, we would do well to invite the Holy Spirit to look deep into our eyes. What will He see there? Will He find light of a humble reliance on God? Or will He discover the darkness of an arrogant confidence in self?

Let's not be "a generation that is pure in its own eyes, yet not washed from its filthiness" (Proverbs 30:12)

Think about this; Where am I compromising with sin? How can I commit to standing firm in Jesus' strength today?

Think on these things. Larry Smith
