Congratulations Ron and Kelly

Ron and Kelly Scoville received the honor of H. I. P. P. Y. Parents of the Year for the state of Arkansas at the annual state conference in Little Rock's Embassy Suites on February 22 and 23. They were chosen out of 13 finalists from the 36 H.I.P.P.Y. Service centers in Arkansas. Ron and Kelly said they were astounded when they were announced as Parents of the Year.

Home Instruction for Parents of Preschool Youngsters or HIPPY as it is commonly called is a program for the parents of 3, 4, and some 5 year old children. The program works with the parents to better help the children get ready for school. It usually runs concurrent with the school year and provides all the material and supplies that is needed for the lessons.

Ron said, "We were honored to be considered as finalists but never expected to be chosen." "It's really amazing how much the kids learn in HIPPY. Our 4 year old says, "Daddy, can we read tonight." I highly recommend it for kids."

Four children of their blended family have been enrolled in the HIPPY program over the past 18 years. They were nominated by their coordinator Debbie Brown and the Boston Mountain Cooperative.

The Scovilles will represent Arkansas at the HIPPY National Convention in 2012.

Tina and Ed Herzog were also nominated from this district and were among the 13 finalists.

VELDA'S WORDS

By Velda Brotherton

Velda announced that she has signed two contracts in the past month. Her book, "Stone Heart's Woman" will be published as an Ebook by Wild Rose Press. It's a western historical romance along the lines of those she previously had published under the pseudonyms of Elizabeth Gregg and Samantha Lee. This one will be published under her name. No date has been set for release as yet. The second book, "Wolf Song," a paranormal (no werewolves, folks) takes place in Pinedale, Wyoming near Yellowstone National Park. It is being published by SynergEbooks.

As soon as she has release dates, they will be posted on her blogs and website <http://www.veldabrotherton.com> She continues to market her two nonfiction books, "The Boston Mountains: Lost in the Ozarks" and "Arkansas Meals and Memories." If anyone wants a signed copy, get in touch with Velda at vebrotherton@gmail.com

Don't forget the free writer's conference being held by the Northwest Arkansas Writer's Workshop at Ozark's Electric March 12 from 8:30 to 4.

For more information contact Velda.

$2500.00 Matching Funds Pledge!

TODAY we received a pledge of $2500.00 in matching funds, if we can raise $2500.00 on or before our May 21st Heritage Day and "Fire on the Mountain!" fundraiser.

Help us Keep the Music Alive in 2011!

Your gift will help us build a stage for live music, yoga, art camp and other outdoor activities on the mountain. Ozark Folkways is offering more classes for children, art openings, musical venues and feel-good community gatherings in 2011 than ever before in our history. With your support now, we are going to have a great 2011 and you are going to be a BIG part of our success.

If you're interested in helping us out, follow the link below. It's extremely easy to give!

“First Friday in Winslow!” 2011 Art Shows And Receptions

Join Us: Friday March 4th, 6-8 PM

“The Dream Lives in 2011!”

Nodie Williams is an ANIMAL'S best friend! Her paintings have been shown widely across the U.S., including shows in Shreveport, LA, Memphis, TN, Arkansas and New York City.

Her paintings hang in private collections in Texas, Tennessee, Kentucky, Arkansas, Florida, New York, Louisiana and Virginia.

New works will include water media on paper and canvas, ranging from traditional watercolors, to acrylics. Nodie describes this new body of work as, “exploring a more abstract element, while retaining the animal theme, more evocation, than provocation.”

Come out and join us Friday March 4th from 6-8 p.m. This event is free and open to the public.

Events Coming Up

Saturday March 26th from 10am-3pm. Ozark Folkways is offering a basic one-day Stained Glass Class. The cost of the class is $75, and registration is now open. The class size is very limited, so call and reserve your space now. ($10 reserves a spot in any of our 2011 classes.) Registration includes tools, supplies and your choice of glass. You will learn how to cut and piece together a simple stained glass panel for your home or as a gift, in just one class!

Saturday April 9th, we will again host Velda Brotherton's spring writer's workshop! You don't want to miss Velda's workshop and you don't want to wait too late to sign up. We expect her spring class to fill soon, so get your registration in today! It's one of our favorite workshops of the year and is appropriate for writers of all levels.

Saturday May 7th, world-renowned herbalist, Steven Foster, will give a one-day class, which will include lecture, an herb walk and a gourmet lunch, at Ozark Folkways! The cost of the class will be $100.00, which includes lunch. (Details of the gourmet lunch menu, with an emphasis on local herbs, is total secret.)

For thirty-four years, Steven Foster has served as a medicinal and aromatic plant specialist, writer, lecturer, and photographer as well as an international consultant to growers, researchers, and others in the medicinal and aromatic industries. Foster has over 800 photo-illustrated articles in popular, trade, and scientific journals. He serves as Associate Editor for Herbalgram. Steven is the author or co-author of fifteen books.

Describing her relationship with Steven Foster, Harvard University botanist, Dr. Shiu Ying Hu (emeriti), wrote, “Our conversation reminded me of something that Confucius said two thousand years ago: ‘In any company of three persons, there must be one who can be my teacher’ ...I found in Steven Foster a teacher who could share a profound knowledge of economic botany, particularly in the cultivation and uses of herbs.”

Steven Foster has pursued photographic goals since 1976. His first photographs appeared in a book on Shaker furniture in 1977. He has served as liaison to visiting photographers on assignment for numerous American and European magazines and newspapers. Today, as a specialist in medicinal and aromatic plants, his stock photo files number over 150,000 images in a highly specialized stock niche.

Good things are happening on the mountain! For more details on Ozark Folkways classes, or to hold your spot for any class or seminar, call Rebecca at 479-634-3791 or contact Rebecca at: director@folkways.ar-coxmail.com

I RESCUED A HUMAN TODAY

*Will Love For Food
And Shelter And Tender Care And A Second Chance.*

Her eyes met mine as she walked down the corridor peering apprehensively into the kennels. I felt her need instantly and knew I had to help her. I wagged my tail, not too exuberantly, so she wouldn't be afraid.

As she stopped at my kennel I blocked her view from a little accident I had in the back of my cage. I didn't want her to know that I hadn't been walked today. Sometimes the shelter keepers get too busy and I didn't want her to think poorly of them.

As she read my kennel card I hoped that she wouldn't feel sad about my past. I only have the future to look forward to and want to make a difference in someone's life.

She got down on her knees and made little kissy sounds at me. I shoved my shoulder and side of my head up against the bars to comfort her. Gentle fingertips caressed my neck; she was desperate for companionship.

A tear fell down her cheek and I raised my paw to assure her that all would be well. Soon my kennel door opened and her smile was so bright that I instantly jumped into her arms. I would promise to keep her safe. I would promise to always be by her side. I would promise to do everything I could to see that radiant smile and sparkle in her eyes. I was so fortunate that she came down my corridor. So many more are out there who haven't walked the corridors. So many more to be saved. At least I could save one.

WINSLOW COMMUNITY MEALS

By David Gesn

February clouds pierced a troubled sky with a blizzard of snow and records were broken across several states, including our own here in Arkansas!

Winslow Community Meals suffered financially in two situations – not opening for the community, and a broken – down refrigerator. Supplies are low and services and/or donations are so desperately needed to continue forward in a positive direction.

All of us in this tiny community are existing in a vortex of economic struggles, yet together working as a whole we can outlast any whirlpool of troubles. Here in this quaint little town, we don't see the tired, troubled faces that are struggling, going nowhere, like the big city folks appear every day. There is a proud history of people helping people in Winslow, and Winslow Community Meals needs help, in turn to help everyone in the area!!

UPDATE

By Annie McCormick

Winslow Meals is back up and serving after being closed for two weeks of ice and snow. To add to our woes, our big refrigerator's compressor went out. Ed Herzog did the repairs without charge (BIG THANKS ED!) But the part set us back about $800.00. We ask for your support to catch up. Please remember that you can support Meals by having dinner here. Have a good meal and help us at the same time!

Congratulations to Robert Dirgo on winning the beautiful quilt that was raffled off on Valentine's Day.

Remember, our board meeting is on the second Monday of the month at 5:00 PM. If you have any concerns about what's happening with Meals please attend. Everybody is welcome. WCM has an email address if you wish to email them.

NEW BUSINESS IN WINSLOW INTRODUCING: "HAZEL VALLEY VIOLETS"

Since there are no florists near Winslow, except to go to Alma or Fayetteville ( and sometimes delivery to our area is expensive or impossible)... and since my garden is usually overflowing...I have decided to kick my garden up a notch and start selling my extra blooms! Some florists are already interested and of course I can sell by the bouquet locally. If you have a birthday, thank you, anniversary, loved one, funeral...see the FLOWERS page on my puppy website www.hazelvalleyhounds.com for some pictures of what I have planted in my garden.

If you need a last minute bouquet for a sweet heart give me a call and I will let you know what is up and blooming. Here is just a short list of what will be blooming...

Stargazer lily, tulips, gladioli, giant zinnia, Italia lily, daffodils, lollipop lily, strawflowers, alliums...

Hope I can meet the need for local flowers! You can call to find out what is available and blooming all season...Rita Wuttke 479-634-2026

LOGIC 2000

By Lonnie Trent

United States of China?

When Obama was discussing his proposed budget, he said that everyone should be willing to give up something and I'll finish the sentence for him - so the superrich will stay superrich.

The wealthiest 1% of the population has more money than all the rest of the 99% put together, yet the government, mainly Republicans, will not raise taxes on them even to get back to what they were taxed before Bush cut their taxes.

Rather than raise taxes on those people, they are proposing to cut fuel oil assistance for the needy in cold weather, cut Social Security benefits and Medicare, lay off countless people, which is in direct opposition to creating jobs, while all their budget reductions are a drop in the bucket to the real problem.

We owe 14 trillion to China, and it's no longer a question of when will we start paying it back; the real question is when will we stop borrowing? Will it be stopped when it reaches the point that our country belongs to China?

I'm not really a Democrat, I am more like Jessie Ventura, who said he doesn't belong to either party because both of them are unbelievably corrupt. I agree, but I give credit where credit is due and when Clinton went out of office, there was a 200 billion surplus. Then Bush came in starting wars and borrowing from China to pay for them. Then Obama came in borrowing more than Bush.

What are we supposed to do, pat him on the back for cutting government spending 60 billion when that will have no affect whatsoever on the numbers that keep on clicking, showing our debt to China? They gave AIG three times more than that saying they were too big to fail. We can only hope that China thinks we are too big to fail. The only way we could compete would be to send our children that are not exceptionally smart to work in factories for nothing, but that isn't going to happen.

No one has a plan on what to do about our debt to China, but I suggest that if something isn't done, the day will come when there will be no other option than to declare war on China because we can't pay them back and refuse to allow them to take control of our country.

I wonder if China can see that coming. I suspect they know it very well.

Computer Swallowed Grandma

The computer swallowed grandma.
Yes, honestly its true.
She pressed 'control' and 'enter'
And disappeared from view.

It devoured her completely,
The thought just makes me squirm.
She must have caught a virus
Or been eaten by a worm.

I've searched through the recycle bin
And files of every kind;
I've even used the Internet,
But nothing did I find.

In desperation, I asked Jeeves
My searches to refine.
The reply from him was negative,
Not a thing was found 'online.'

So, if inside your 'Inbox,'
My Grandma you should see,
Please 'Copy,' 'Scan' and 'Paste' her
And send her back to me!

This is a tribute to all the Grandmas who have been fearless and learned to use the computer..... They are the greatest!!!

Past, Present, & Future: St. Patrick's Day

By: Christina Eichstedt

christina-eichstedt@hotmail.com www.2012TheLastEntries.com
www.wearysouls.com

St. Patrick, the patron Saint of Ireland, is probably one of the most widely known figures among Christians, though his life is still shrouded in mystery thanks to years of exaggerated storytelling. What is known about Saint Patrick is that he was born to wealthy parents near the end of the fourth century in England. Though his father was a church deacon, there is no evidence that Saint Patrick came from a particularly religious family. Patrick was captured at the age of 16 and taken prisoner by a group of Irish raiders that were attacking his families' estate. Though he was taken to Ireland and spent six years in captivity, it is unsure where exactly he was held, many believe he was taken to live at Mount Slemish but it is more likely that he was taken to County Mayo. During his time in captivity, he worked as a shepherd; he was outdoors, away from people, and terribly lonely; all of this causing him to turn to religion and become a devout Christian. After six years of being held captive, Patrick escaped, stating in his writings that a voice that he believed to be God, told him in a dream that it was time to leave Ireland. Patrick had to walk nearly 200 miles to the Irish coast and from there he was able to escape back to England. Patrick had another revelation; an angel spoke to him in a dream, advising him to return to Ireland as a missionary. Patrick studied for 15 years and then was ordained as a catholic priest. He was then sent to Ireland to preach to those already practicing Christianity and to begin converting the Irish that didn't. This contradicts the belief that St. Patrick introduced Christianity to Ireland. Though there were a small number of Christians there, most Irish practiced a nature-based Pagan religion. Rather than trying to get rid of all native rituals and beliefs, Patrick incorporated them into his teachings by use of bonfires to celebrate Easter since the Irish were already accustomed to using fire to worship their Gods. Patrick also incorporated a sun, which is a powerful Irish symbol, onto the Christian cross in order to make it seem more natural to the Irish, that cross is now known as the Celtic Cross. This account may not seem as exciting and dramatic as some of the stories that you've heard, but remember that it has long been a custom of the Irish to spin exaggerated tells as a way of remember history through oral tradition and myths. It's believed that Patrick died on March 17, 460 A.D.

The first St. Patrick's Day parade actually took place in the United States, not in Ireland as some would probably guess. On March 17, 1762 Irish soldiers serving in the English military marched through New York City; though a long way from home, the parade, along with their music, helped them get back to their Irish roots as well as connect with fellow Irishmen serving in the English army. Irish patriotism flourished among Americans over the next several decades, "Friendly Sons of Saint Patrick" and the "Hibernian Society" were formed during this time. These groups would hold annual parades with bagpipes and drums but in 1848 several Irish Aid societies in New York City decided to join forces to hold one New York City St. Patrick's Day Parade, which is known as the world's oldest civilian parade and with over 150,000 participants, it's the largest in the United States. Nearly 3 million people line the 1.5-mile route to watch the parade each year, it takes more than 5 hours from start to finish.

Today, St. Patrick's Day is celebrated by many races and religions of people in the U.S., Australia, and Canada. Even as far from Ireland as Japan, Singapore, and Russia have celebrated St. Patrick's Day. Chicago is famous for its tradition of dyeing the Chicago River green, a peculiar tradition that started back in 1962, they used 100 pounds of dye, causing the river to be green for a week but now they only use 40 pounds so that it will only remain green for several hours. Some Savannah, Georgia natives say that this idea originated with them when in 1961 Mayor Woolley attempted a green river but on March 17th, the waters were too rough and the experiment failed. They never attempted a green river again.

The future of St. Patrick's Day will continue to be about wearing green in order to not be pinched by your classmates and co-workers, drinking a little green beer at your local "pub", parades, and dyeing the Chicago River green. Hopefully the future will also hold some remembrance of the Patron Saint of Ireland, the man that was held in captivity, a devout Christian who spread the word of God to the Irish, and walked 200 miles to find freedom. We often forget the people behind the day we are celebrating but don't just celebrate to be celebrating anymore, know why you celebrate and who you're really celebrating.

WEST OF WEST FORK

Rosilee Mugley 839:2534...E-Mail: rejoycejohn316@netzero.com

Hello everyone: For those who wish to e-mail information to me, please notice that I now have a new e-mail address which is listed above. Thanks for sending me your church and other information.

The West Fork Assembly of God Church will host a special night of worship, praise, and fellowship on Sunday evening the 6th of March. The featured group is "The Parnells." The service will begin at 6:00 p.m. Everyone is invited to the come and join in the celebration!

If you missed getting your Girl Scout Cookies from the West Fork Troop #5469 this past Wednesday at Super Foods, call Renee at 839-3365 to order your cookies. The Girl Scouts are gathering information from former Girl Scouts for next year's celebration of 100 years of girl scouting. Every girl that gets information from six former scouts will earn a badge for the back of their uniform. The girls have a sheet that asks the information that is needed for the celebration. If you were a scout and would like to be 'interviewed', please call Renee Co-Leader or the scout leader Tina Henretty at 409-1499.

My daughter, Johnette and I spent Saturday afternoon together starting with some shopping, lunch, and more shopping! I told John when I left, I'll see you later and he said, yeah – after dark! And sure enough, it was 8:30 p.m. when I got home. I told him I was home early – that Johnette and I still didn't get to Wal-Mart! It's been quite a while since we have both had time to just visit and do something together. Time goes by so fast; we don't seem to have time to fellowship with family and friends anymore. We're all just too busy!

Well folks, please keep me in prayer. I'm going to try to kick a very bad habit. I'm a coke a cola addict! Sometimes I drink as many as three or four sodas a day! (Yes, family – it's Diet Coke). I don't really care for plain water all the time so I bought several varieties of Crystal Light and Green Tea to drink instead of sodas. With the price of gas going so high so quick I won't be able to afford my Coke anyway! Besides, I just read in the paper where the price of sodas are going up too.

I visited with Laura at her shop "Somewhere In Time", this past Friday and had a very enjoyable time visiting and shopping in her store. If you've never been there, you really need to check it out. She has new items all the time. Her advertisement is in the Observer. I bought a new tea pitcher with the tray, sugar container and creamer and some p.j.'s to use for gifts at Christmas. The "Somewhere in Time" store has everything from jewelry to clothing, children and baby supplies, dishes, and some long-forgotten types of knick-knacks and vases. You will get lost in time when go so plan to stay for a while.

Until next time: Religion should be our steering wheel, not our spare tire!

Well hello there friends and neighbors. I, once again, am furthering my education. This time it is The Myokinesthetic System, a home study course, consisting of 56 CEU hours. This will help me to better target and treat specific muscles and groups of muscles, pertaining to injuries and pain. I will be adding this service sometime in March. Please give me a call if you have any questions or are just wondering if this can help you. Approaching fifteen years practicing massage in our community, what a blessing! I personally can not wait until spring, however I'm afraid we all will have to!!! I hope everyone made it through all the snow and cold temperatures without too much hassle or hardship. Don't tell anybody I actually enjoyed the downtime by doing Yoga, studying, and spending time with my husband (Chris) and two wonderful nieces (Kimberly and Kelleigh). We hope you all enjoyed the snow days too! Looking forward to seeing you soon at our local farmers market, until next time, peace and harmony Jenn.

The Pastor's Pen

BUZZARD, BAT & BUMBLE BEE

THE BUZZARD:

If you put a buzzard in a pen that is 6 feet by 8 feet and is entirely open at the top, the bird, in spite of its ability to fly, will be an absolute prisoner. The reason is that a buzzard always begins a flight from the ground with a run of 10 to 12 feet. Without space to run, as is its habit, it will not even attempt to fly, but will remain a prisoner for life in a small jail with no top.

THE BAT:

The ordinary bat that flies around at night, a remarkable nimble creature in the air, cannot take off from a level place. If it is placed on the floor or flat ground, all it can do is shuffle about helplessly and, no doubt, painfully, until it reaches some slight elevation from which it can throw itself into the air. Then, at once, it takes off like a flash.

THE BUMBLEBEE:

A bumblebee, if dropped into an open tumbler, will be there until it dies, unless it is taken out. It never sees the means of escape at the top, but persists in trying to find some way out through the sides near the bottom.. It will seek a way where none exists, until it completely destroys itself.

PEOPLE:

In many ways, we are like the buzzard, the bat, and the bumblebee.

We struggle about with all our problems and frustrations, never realizing that all we have to do is look up! That's the answer, the escape route and the solution to any problem! Just look up to Jesus.

Sorrow looks back, Worry looks around, But faith looks up!
Live simply, love generously, care deeply,
speak kindly and trust
in our Creator who loves us.

BRENTWOOD HILLTOP CHAPEL NEWS

By Pastor Larry Smith

There is a Three part Special presentation "Live" on 3ABN TV called "Unclean Spirits" This is 'Eye opening' telling Satan's attacks to destroy Christians, presented by Pastor John Lomacang. It will air March 17-19, Thursday and Friday at 7:00 PM and on Saturday 11:00 AM, 3:00 PM, & 7:00 PM.,CST.

If any one doesn't have this Channel available in their home, they can call one of the following telephone numbers and these people will welcome you warmly, (479)634-5021, (479)466-1944, (479)634-3323, also the Brentwood Hilltop Chapel will be open and this can be viewed there at the same times on a 'Life size screen'.

POWER OF PRAYER

Someone has said if Christians and Jews really understood the full extent of the power we have available through prayer, we might be speechless.

Did you know that during WWII there was an adviser to Churchill who organized a group of people who dropped what they were doing every day at a prescribed hour for one minute to collectively pray for the safety of England, its people and peace?

There is now a group of people organizing the same thing here in America.

If you would like to participate: Every evening at 9:00 PM Eastern Time (8:00 PM Central) (7:00 PM Mountain) (6:00 PM Pacific), stop whatever you are doing and spend one minute praying for the safety of the United States, our troops, our citizens, and for a return to a Godly nation. If you know anyone who would like to participate, please pass this along. Our prayers are the most powerful asset we have.

You don't have to sign on, or sign up - just pray, and ask your friends to join you in prayer.

Thanks and "God Bless America."

EACH AND EVERY DAY

This is the beginning of a new day.

God has given me this day to use as I will.

I can waste it or use it for good.

What I do today is important, because I'm exchanging a day of my life for it.

When tomorrow comes, this day will be gone forever, leaving something I have traded for it.

I want it to be gain, not loss;
Good, not evil;
Success, not failure;
in order that I shall not regret the price I paid for it.
