Climate Change

By: Jamie Ridenoure.

We are experiencing a lot of the effects of climate change , now. Unrest is all around the world. The latest data from (WHO)and (UNICEF), on people's lack of access to clean water and adequate sanitation is affecting two billion people globally. The facts of the global water crisis is that 780 million people lack access to clean drinking water. 90% of all natural disasters are water related. Poverty has become a global epidemic. Be thankful for what you got, it may be more than someone else. The earth is in crisis.

Authenticity Tip

Decide you are enough

You yearn to be valued for who you are, not for what you do. Yet it can be terrifying to show your true self. Will you be enough? Accept that the only person who can answer that question You. Throughout the day, ask yourself, “Am I giving enough by My standards?” If the answer is no try to determine what is interfering with your sense of satisfaction. Is it perfectionism, people pleasing, or spreading yourself too thin? Become intimate with what fulfills you.

YOU THINK ABOUT THAT

THE CHURCH

Look over here. Look over there. I'm hearing comments about our Government creating distractions to divert our attention from what they are actually doing that they don't want us to see. I have no idea what they might be hiding until their proper time to roll it out. Now I'm thinking if just maybe the Church has allowed the enemy to throw up distractions to keep people from seeing and understanding what is really Important. I believe Christ taught us in the four gospels everything proper the Church needs to know and instruction on how to physically and spiritually perform and produce positive results for the Kingdom of God and this society in a fallen imperfect nature called "our existence". Could it be that the enemy has created distractions to get the attention of the Church on promoting issues of lesser importance than what Christ taught in word and actual physical examples in the four gospels? Could it be that fifteen different denominations preaching fifteen different ways to worship and live in order to obtain eternal life be a distraction? Could it be the prophecies and concerns of the end time be a distraction. Just on these two issues millions of books have been written and billions of dollars have been spent and made. Yet we're not any closer to knowing the correct answer than we were when Christ arose from the grave. The very first recorded words of Christ were "I must be about my Father's business". Is the Church about the Father's business? Or is it about debating the essence of the Father's business. Nature dictates anything "not growing" is dying. Statistics show The Church is not growing and has actually lost 30 percent over the past fifty years. I believe there will be a "Judgment" day. I believe you and I will be there to answer for "Our" own personal actions.

I'm Wesley Wood,
YOU THINK ABOUT THAT!

7 Signs of Jesus Soon Return

The Fourth sign I want you to think about is:

The Denial of the Second Coming

When he spoke of the Second Coming, the apostle Paul stated, "For you yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord so comes as a thief in the night. For when they say, 'Peace and safety' then sudden destruction comes upon them" (1 Thessalonians 5:2, 3). Do you know what denies the return of Christ? When peace and safety" are yearned for, when ease and comfort are cherished, at the expense of truth—that's when Christ's return becomes an annoyance, an avoidance, or even regarded as a pipe dream. People don't want to hear about it because they like the way things are; they don't want things to change.

Take the COVID-19 Pandemic. Practically overnight, the entire world was impacted, our way of life shifted dramatically. Students of Bible prophecy easily identified it as a sign of the end, one of the 'pestilences' (Matthew 24:7). But how many couldn't wait for the bars and nightclubs to reopen? How many spent there unemployed hours binge-watching their favorite television shows? How many were consumed with getting back to their creature comforts rather than responding to the alarm being sounded? In so doing, they make the Second Coming of Christ but a byword. The devil has a thousand and one ways to distract us with the humdrum of everyday life. Are you failing for his temptations?

The rest is yet to come in future issues of Within Winslow.
