Researching Longtime Area Residents

linda moody <lindasicoremood@ gmail.com>

I have come across your newsletter often looking for contacts as I research my family history. I have located a Nell Fraley a widow who would be in her late eighties if still living, likely a resident of your area. Two years ago she was alive as I found an obituary for her sister. All her family is buried in Black Oak Cemetery and the family appears to be connected to Black Oak Church of Christ. A past address is 230 S. School Rd, Fayetteville.

Can you assist me with any known living contacts for this person?

Thanks so much,
Linda Adams Sicore Moody

PET ORDINANCE

The City of Winslow would like to remind residents once again that there is an Ordinance prohibiting the running at large of dogs inside the city limits. If you would like to read or have a copy of this Ordinance please call or come by City Hall Monday-Friday between the hours of 9:00 AM and 3:00 PM. This Ordinance went into in effect in April 2001 so it is not a new Ordinance.

If you have problems with dogs or other animals running loose please call the Washington County Sheriff's Office at 479-444-5700 and ask for animal control.

If you are missing a pet and have not had them under restraint or they broke their restraint you may have to call to find out if they have been picked up.

If you haven't been by for a visit recently, please come and enjoy a couple of new exhibits in the museum. Gene and Tanya Farris created a wonderful display celebrating the many years of Winfest. Wonderful donations of original T-shirts, flyers, backstage passes, as well as, photos and stories of Winfest's history were given to the museum. We are always so grateful for donations. There is also a new exhibit about Winslow's Petticoat Government. In the mid-1920's, women were given the opportunity to run for Winslow's city council. Maud Duncan was elected Mayor and Auda Crider became the city recorder. The granddaughters of Mrs. Crider donated a hat that she wore during her time on the Petticoat Government. The hat is on display along with some other items from that historic time.

Richard Cress is one who lived and went to school in Winslow in the 1940's. He has written a book about his time in Winslow, "Ozark Urchins" which is on sale in the Museum. If you lived here during the 1940's you may even find yourself among these pages. It's a fun read.

The museum has a couple of upcoming events in October. On Sunday, October 12th, we will host a group of history students from John Brown University. The following Sunday, the 19th, the Washington County Historical Society will come for a visit. We always love the opportunity to share Winslow's rich history.

The Museum is not big enough for a "gift shop", but we do have a table of items for sale relating to Winslow History. With the holidays coming up you may just find the perfect gift for someone related to Winslow and its history.

Items For Sale At The Winslow Museum:

Winslow Coffee Mugs
Train Note Cards
Train Photographs
"Ozark Urchins" by Richard Cress
"Winslow Top of the Ozarks" by Robert Winn
"Glimpses Into the Past" - compiled by Barbara Ashbaugh

If you are interested in becoming involved with the museum, or would like to schedule a group visit, please contact us at 479-634-3901. Museum hours are Mon-Fri 9am-3pm or on Sat by appointment.

Mother-in-law

Today I picked up my mother-in-law at the airport. She's getting a little up there. She's at the age where she doesn't remember things too well. So when I saw her I said, "Thanks for coming. Have a nice flight!"

Special Message from Winslow Community Meals:

Thank you again to everyone who donated both financially and of your time for our July Fundraisers. We sincerely apologize for not including the following people who we truly want to thank: Boyd Nesbitt, Randall Barker, Darrell Moody, Clifford and Sandra Burton, Mary Bromley, Stacy Bromley, Iris Bromley, Reta Collins, Susan Drummond, Kristi Wood, Kim and Dan Browning, Lou Ann Center, Pam Center, Art and Kathy Hughes, Bart and Pam Petray, and Brooke Lyons.

Thank you also goes out to Christine Harrison of George's for their large donation of chicken!

Thank you too to everyone for your time and efforts in making the Fourth Annual Winslow Run a success. We couldn't have provided such a wonderful meal to the runners without your help. Next year we will have more food! Thank you to Josh and Amanda Smith of Tyson's, Stacy and Michelle Bromley, Darrell and Marta Moody, Boyd and Shirley Nesbitt, Lou Ann Center, Pam Center, Joe and Eve Geszvain, Clifford and Sandra Burton, Jean Cosgrove, Patty Burnett, and DiAnna Preston.

Our deepest appreciation and thanks goes out to those who were sponsors and those who volunteered at the run, it wouldn't be possible without you! Thank you to Dan Dean, Mary Anderson, and Erin Chapman for helping us get everything organized and thank you to the Winslow Community Development Council for all that you do.

Thank you to the community for continuing to show your support to Winslow Community Meals and thank you also goes out to all of our Board Members and volunteers, who volunteer their time and efforts to keep us up and running!

Winslow Community Meals, Inc. will be holding our yearly Board election on October 13th at 5:00PM. The election will be held at Winslow Community Meals. Officers are elected each year and we currently have one seat open on the Board. In the coming year, we hope to increase fundraising activity so that we can continue to serve our current patrons as well as increase the services we provide to the community of Winslow, so if you are interested in getting involved please come to the election.

NEW PROGRAM AT WCM: "Sponsor-A-Meal".

As you know, there are a great deal of people in our community that are doing without. Winslow Community Meals, Inc. needs your help to help those in need. # AUTHORS TOUR AT THE WINSLOW LIBRARY

Article by Jo Kyle Photos by Kayonna Barker

The Friends of the Winslow Library hosted seven of several authors touring the NW Arkansas Libraries with their books and introducing a new publishing firm to the area, Oghma Creative Media.

The authors were introduced by Casey Cowen, CEO of Oghma. He then turned it over to M. G. Miller, one of the authors, who did a fantastic job of drawing both the authors and the public into conversation about writing, publishing, creating characters, continuing story lines, and aspirations of becoming a writer.

Thank you to all the authors, one of whom drove from Enid, OK to join us. I also want to thank the hostesses that did the decorating and set up the refreshment table.

Winslow Library News

We have new books come to the library almost weekly. Currently on order is "Burn" by James Patterson and John Grisham's "Gray Mountain" as well as some others. If you wish us to order a special book or would like us to put a book on hold for you, just ask.

The Friends of the Library will not meet on Saturday, the 4th, but will hold their monthly meeting on October 11, 2014 at 1:00 PM.

October 18th at 1:00 PM Jo Kyle will hold a workshop on Beginning Genealogy. This will be geared toward the beginner, anyone over the age of 10, (ages 10 – 16 must be accompanied by an adult) but even the most experienced may profit from some of the ideas presented. There is no charge for the class but will be a $3.00 charge to cover the cost of copies supplied by the Friends of the Library.

About a month ago Jo helped me find the early history for Mable Thomlison of the Sunset community. If you have wondered about your family, join us for an informal group discussion. We will also have the library collection on Genealogy on display.

October 25th at 11:00 Jerry Bromley, pastor of Bunyard Church will be at the library to read some of his poetry. He has a book "Poetry and Praise" that was published in 1990 in the library and several more he has written more recently. Come and listen to a neighbor who is also a pastor and a poet.

Wednesday, October 29, 2014
will be our annual Fall Carnival.
We welcome you all to come and fellowship with us!

Clay Bird Studio & Gift Shop

Clay Bird Studio is a smallish home based studio located next to our home at 309 Center Street in Winslow. We are within walking distance of the Winslow Mercantile on a little paved road between the park and the railroad tracks. At the top of the hill you will find Clay Bird Studio and my small yellow cottage, both with red metal roofs.

We have a small gift shop in our working studio where we create rustic pottery, art and healthy herbal products. Right now we have funky pottery planters, some contain easy to care for succulents. These are great for giving to someone who could use some cheering up. I also have hand drawn gift cards, food safe pottery dishes & bowls, all natural herbal soap, and healthy all natural lip balm. Other items for sale include kombucha scobys for making your own healthy probiotic drinks. Sometimes I have extra home-brewed kombucha available as well. Other curiosities in the gift shop currently are quartz crystals we recently dug at Mt Ida, and hundreds of antique trade beads - some are 100 years old. You never know what you will find at our studio because we love creating and like to keep it fun!

We are having our first "Clay Playday" Sunday, October 19th from 2:00 - 5:00 in our studio. Workshop size is limited to 4 people since our studio is of intimate proportion. We will be making "pottery sunshine faces" that can be hung outdoors or inside. With this project you will learn some beginning hand building techniques that can be applied to many other projects. We listen to music and sip herbal tea & kombucha while getting our fingers muddy! This will be an adult workshop. Contact me at (806) 433-9048 or claybirdgoods@gmail.com to sign up. Cost for this work shop is $20 which includes clay & kiln firing of your projects.

Gift Shop Hours:

10:00 AM - 6:00 PM Most days except Saturday. You are welcome to browse our gift shop when we are home. Call, text or drop by. Please keep in mind this is a working studio, so we may be elbow deep in clay or herbals, but you are welcome to browse. We can take debit cards. Regular hours will be coming in November for the holiday season.

"Comedy Corner"

By David Gesn©2014

So, what you do is strap your dog on your back, and wrap a cloak around the two of you and trick or treating as the "Hunchback of Winslow"! Wait just a doggone minute! Who says an ol'-codger and his dog can't go trick or treat? Are there now new rules of how young one has to be to trick or treat? Lighten up folks, you only go around once. Hallelujah!

I t takes absolute courage for an ol' man and his dog to go trick or treat, kinda' like walking naked thru' village of cannibals! Hey – Slam you door in my face and I'll throw a tomato at you. I saved some and froze them just in case! Imagine going to court and explaining that to the judge! Hallelujah!

Not long ago, someone proclaimed I needed a new vehicle and she was absolutely correct. I'm going to go out and buy me a new convertible corvette. Then I'm going to buy me a beach house in Hawaii, and one in New Zealand. Then I'm going to marry my fantasy woman. First I'm going to wake up from this fantastic dream I am experiencing and go boil a couple of eggs for my dog and get her ready for trick or treat! Hallelujah! I dream "BIG", might as well, hey – for a nickel more you can go first class! My dreams are also in color, so they are vivid – indeed! The night prior to my first sky-dive, I dreamed I soared like an eagle in a clear blue sky! So, even at only 160 pounds, I dropped like a rock at 150 miles per hour, and the whole ball of wax lasted maybe three minutes or so – Hallelujah! Well it was a clear blue sky and it was quite an experience!

I f a person is lucky enough to live long enough to be old, three great things can occur. First, 'one' is young, second, one matures, and third one is again – young. It's referred to as "going thru one's second childhood". If 'one' reaches this interval, it's ok, it's accepted by society. It's okay to visit the little people, and it's ok to go trick or treat! Then on day, 'one' can wrap his arms around his fantasy woman, and give her a big kiss! Well, that may be going too far. It is a thought, none the less! Hallelujah

“The Cavern”

By David Gesn © 2014

Usually it is with possession of some type of evidence that proves an unknown existence. The human mind thinks that way. “Give me some type of proof and I will believe.” Forget it; it’s not going to happen concerning the Cavern.

Manipulation goes a long way with some folks. It’s there and may be there a long time, as it has been already. You find it and then you will understand a richness you cannot explain.

The Cavern is one of my “escapes”. The peace of mind comes from escaping the turmoil of the human race we exist in today. One day that emotion will disappear for me and for the next adventurers that will happen on to it, unless they too decide to keep it a secret for a while. I’ve given clues to its whereabouts and all of us in the group decided to share its secrets with the world. Initially we all shared one common goal and that was to keep it a guarded secret. We all knew one day someone else would eventually find it, but we were not sure they wouldn’t exploit it or destroy it. As the rock around us shifts, it is possible that the cavern might open-up. Then it would no longer be a secret nor any escape.

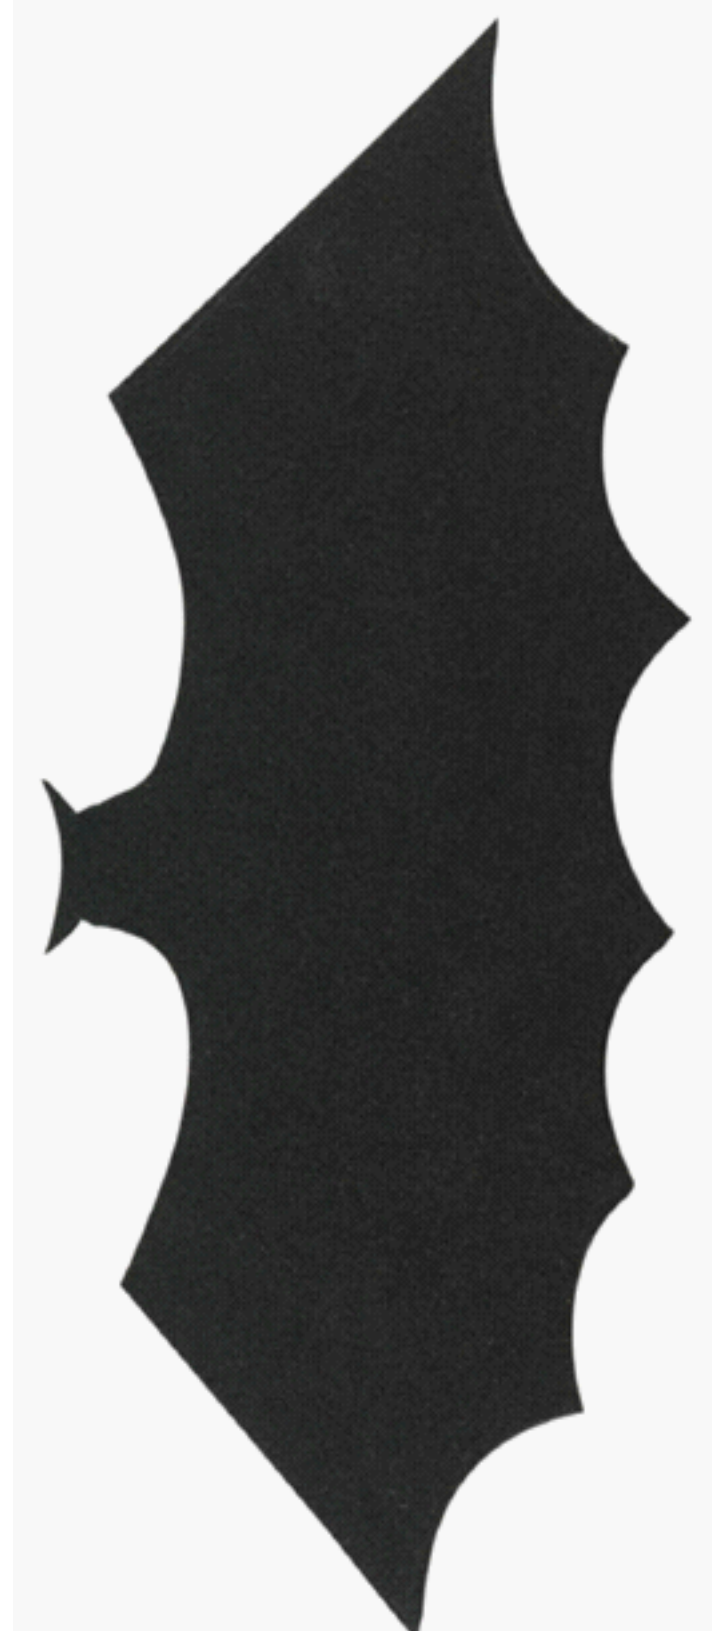

By revealing such a wonder, it may become protected. Like everything else, it will be man’s choice. There may even be an unknown reason why that cavern exists, other than the history within its walls. It may be there for some futuristic reason, I do not know. No bats, no mosquitoes, no snakes, no bears, yet photosynthesis exists, fish –edible fish, edible plants and herbs – why? Hallelujah!

I don’t know any reasoning for all that, but I’m not that smart! Doesn’t make any sense to me why that yellow stuff appears in a location it probably shouldn’t, not do I understand the two pyramid-mound structures. I do not really understand its existence at all. The geniuses of the world are probably going to deny it exists at all. Why? Because it does not make any sense, and that my friends is maybe why it is there. Hallelujah!

Maybe Indian Society wasn’t as stupid as some folks think. Maybe they needed silver for trade purposes and possibly a tad of the yellow stuff, also. Oh did I mention silver? Guess I did – imagine that! Well surely it wasn’t dug up from around here. Probably brought in from an unknown source of another region. Silver trinkets, silver coins – Why would any Indian need any money for anything? Makes absolutely no sense to me. After all, they did sell a region in what state was it – Rhode Island or somewhere for little or nothing? Well, the Louisiana Purchase was sold for little or nothing. If I’m not mistaken, Adams and Jefferson- two earlier geniuses had to do with that, due partially to the smarts of Napoleon, another genius. Hallelujah! I’m not real sure why I wrote that, but there must be a reason.

Did you ever see the movie Jeramiah Johnson with Robert Redford? Remember the scene where he and soldiers travel thru the “Scared Burial” ground of the Crow Nation? That scene was truth to a degree, but not all tribes were the same as the Crow. Now I ask you, if they had shown a scene where an Indian buried parts of those Indians in the ground, the scene would not have been that interesting, would it have? NAW! Course now, it was just a movie. Bleached bones in the sun make a better picture. Knowing the truth, wonder how many Indians are actually buried under super highways or possibly even in some unknown underground structure? Makes you wonder, does it not? Who really cares? Somebody once told me the Trail of Tears came thru this area. No, not in Winslow – Sorry! Yet, there is a whole lot of history here, more so than many folks know. A lot of wealth here also. Both came about way before the Trail of Tears. Many other caves out and about, some with history, some just black corridors in a cobweb fashion. How many years went by before we found out ol’ Jesse actually came thru the Devil’s Den area? Quite a while before positive proof existed. Well, it does take quite a while to discover some things, does it not? Hallelujah!

Ozark Folkways Fiber Arts Festival October 11th, 2014

Submitted by: Rebecca Buchanan,

WINSLOW-

Saturday October 11th from 10 am-4 pm -Ozark Folkways will present, the best of the best, of local Fiber Arts at our annual Fiber Arts Show and Festival.

“This is an amazing show, highlighting the creative energy of the region in both traditional arts and craft, as well as wildly creative “out of the box” fiber arts!”

There will be demonstrations of spinning, rug-hooking, basket-making, quilting, and other forms of natural fiber art.

Guests may also enjoy some fine Ozark Cooking featuring local brisket, beans, sizzling skillet cornbread, homemade desserts, and drinks.

Fiber Arts Festival is free and open to the public.

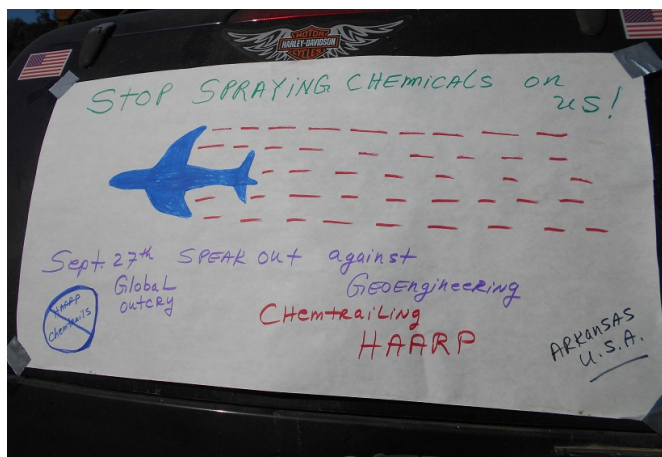

Ozark Folkways is a 501-C-3 organization dedicated to preserving Ozark native arts and music of the Ozarks. Ozark Folkways not only operates a gallery featuring local artists, we host a variety of classes for children and adults ranging from stone masonry and basket weaving to a fiddle camp and children’s art camp.

For more information on the Ozark Folkways Fiber Arts Show and Festival, contact Rebecca Buchanan at director@folkways.arcoxml.com or call 479-634-3791.

GEOENGINEERING

By Rita Wuttke

GEOENGINEERING....is man manipulating weather...it is dangerous, it involves the use of tons of chemicals spraying from planes along with other technology like HAARP to disperse it. There are other ideas and information coming out as to the entire story. Needless to say many are speaking out and wanting it to stop. Trees and plants are dying in large numbers in some part of the country, history making droughts/snowstorms and flooding and EXTREME and deadly weather patterns have caused much distress across the country. SEPT. 27, 2014 Saturday was a GLOBAL day to demonstrate and speak out and educate people to LOOK UP and pay attention. More and more people are becoming very concerned for their sake, their childrens sake and their grandchildrens sake. This is not just a 'theory' it is science fact and all the information is easily obtained. Our future is at stake, health/safety and our food and water sources are showing some bad signs because of chemical aerosol spraying. Educate yourself....we only have one planet God gave us to live on and man messing with it on a Global scale is a horrible thing. There was a good amount of discussion of the topic at Farmer's Market and it was great to speak with other concerned citizens.

YOU THINK ABOUT THAT!

By Wesley Wood

Proverbs 29:2 When the righteous are in authority, the people rejoice; but when the wicked beareth rule, the people mourn. This article is meant for the 80% of this nation professing to be a Church Member and believe in Jesus Christ and their role in the coming election. 80% is a majority. Yet sins, the bible, this 80% believe, clearly disagrees with, are manifested in this Nation at a pace never before seen in its history. Sexual immorality, Homosexual Marriage, and killing of Innocent Human Beings before they have a chance to see the light of day top the list. This has been happening since the beginning of time among diverse individuals in every culture. When they were accepted in the culture corporately as "normal", the demise of that culture began. I don't know of and can't find a culture in the history of this world, Heathen or Otherwise, that corporately condoned the taking of human lives the way this Nation does today.

Psalm 9:17, the wicked shall be turned into hell, and all the nations that forget God.

Although the Economy, Obamacare, Terrorism, Ukraine, Russia and many other areas are serious issues, I believe the real issues are about the moral decline in this Nation.

Christ's teachings pertain, but not exclusively, to Politics and Elections. I do not believe one can be a believer in Jesus Christ and not be involved in politics and vote. Three passages form the basis for my feelings: For space and time, I'm paraphrasing. 1. Matthew 5:14, The light of the world. 2. Matthew 5:13, The salt of the earth 3. Mathew chapter 25: Stewardship: The master was taking a trip. He called his servants together; to some he gave five talents, two talents, and one talent according to, (Please Note) 'their different abilities'. Although the word "talent" references money, the talents accepted as a believer in Jesus Christ and his word are not about money. Matthew 25:24; Then he which had received the one talent came and said, Lord, I knew that thou art a hard man, reaping where thou hast not sown, and gathering where thou hast not strewed: 25; And I was afraid, and went and hid thy talent in the earth: lo, there thou hast that is yours.

Here is what this guy's real problem was. He knew he should do the research on the candidates and their policies to see which one had the best moral and ethical policies and the best ideas on the economy and other issues. However, he was just too lazy and had other things he wanted to do that were more important to him than the future of his Nation, his children/grandchildren or the interest of his master. Referencing politics in the preceding case in point is due to the coming election however, this is also about everything in one's life and communities in which they have the capabilities to influence the issues in a positive manner.

If you are a believer in Jesus Christ you have been given at least one talent (maybe two, five or more, read this entire passage, you'll see what I mean) to do your very best to be: 1. A light shining out against all the immoralities in this Nation. 2. Salt of the Earth. Salt has very good preservation qualities. I believe it is the duty of every believer to do their very best to preserve Christianity and the morals of this Nation. One way to do that is vote. Unfortunately, obviously, attending the Church/Social Clubs of your choice just is not cutting it. 3. Stewardship is very necessary for one to make the best choices in the electoral process. I believe if the believers in Jesus Christ and his word will step up and actually corporately do what their bible teaches; all these other issues will take care of themselves.

Accept the challenge to be responsible. Look back at history.

Read the Bible books Judges, Samuel, Kings, Chronicles. Notice when the powers that were; ruled with highest respect of God, moral standards and honesty the society always flourished and was at peace. As soon as their morals started declining and all sorts of atrocities were allowed to be perpetrated on the people; especially on the children, every time they were attacked and taken into captivity and put into slavery. Has there has ever been an empire in history that didn't have a moral decline as it collapsed? The Great Roman Empire imploded as morals declined. Human life begins at conception and ends at death and that can be while in the womb or after birth. I believe, one as a true believer, in the teachings of Jesus Christ, as the three I have just pointed out, has a supreme duty to make these issues a priority. I believe, voting against these issues, the bible clearly disagrees with, is an essential duty. Voting for candidates known to support any of the immoralities or the taking of innocent human lives, I believe, is an accomplice to the same. The blood of over 55 million innocent human beings cries out from the earth. Be a responsible steward please don't bury your talent?

The Bible, this 80% believe, also teaches there will be a judgment after death and everyone will be accountable for every act they committed during their life. You can choose not to believe that will actually happen. You can't prove it won't and I can't prove it will. That creates one fact. Your odds are 50/50. Which way will you flip your quarter? I'm Wesley Wood, YOU THINK ABOUT THAT!
