Medical Supply Give-Away

First Baptist Church of Winslow is going to be hosting a medical supply give-away on Saturday, November 7 from 10-12. I hope to catch the Saturday Morning recycle crowd who might benefit from free medical supplies so if 10 is too late please let me know and I can go earlier. We will have items like; unopened bandages, unopened creams, walkers, crutches and things to that effect. Hopefully we will have a lot of stuff, but it all depends on donation generosity.

Water Meters & New Customers Outside the City Limits

Based on reliable data and the continued growth in our area, it has been determined that the demand for water will exceed our supply based on the rate of request for new meters that continue to come into the Water Department. Therefore, at the September monthly City Council meeting, the City Council voted, effective October 15, 2020, to suspend taking new meter applications from anyone outside the city limits and limit new applications for meters for businesses inside the city limits to those which do not utilize excessive amounts of water, as determined by City Council. Individuals outside the city limits should contact Washington Water Authority for service.

Boston Mountain Fire Department is hosting a Drive-by Trunk-or-Treat October 31st, 2020 from 6:30 pm-8 PM.

We are welcoming participation by community members to join us by Decorating your trunks and giving our families a safe place to enjoy this holiday. Mask and gloves will be provided if you are passing out candies, and everything must be pre-packaged. The 6ft rule will also be recommended.

If you have any questions please contact Chief Aaron Wood at (479)466-3648.

Tidbits from the Hilltop –

By Ann Tomlinson Malkie

Well, I have already cast my vote! I took advantage of the opportunity get an absentee ballot. I filled out the application and when the ballot arrived, I filled it out, added the photo copy of my driver's license, and dropped it off at the Washington Country Courthouse County Clerks Office. Not that I don't trust the Post Office but why should it go to Fort Smith first when I was going to Fayetteville anyway. That was easy and one more item off my list. I have not missed an election since I turned 18, the same year they started allowing 18 years olds to vote – after all they were fighting in Vietnam. Voting is a right and a privilege as a United States citizen – I hope everyone will do it! Stay safe, keep wearing those masks. Always, Ann from the Hilltop

WINSLOW LOVED ONES WE HAVE LOST

Darrel E. Hutchins

July 29, 1943 - September 9, 2020

Darrel E. Hutchins of Winslow was born on July 29, 1943 to Carl and Maggie Hutchins, departed this world on Wednesday, September 9, 2020 from numerous medical conditions at Washington Regional Medical Center.

Darrel married the love of his life, Thelma Hughes Hutchins on May 24, 1961. His love for her was one of devotion and an example for many.

He enjoyed watching anything John Wayne or any western with his favorite being Gunsmoke. He could quote the lines to any episode before the actor did. He also enjoyed a Saturday night in his recliner watching The Presley's & Hee Haw.

He was known to arrive to any appointment or event an hour or two early so he wouldn't be late. He didn't like to leave his recliner very long because "he didn't want it to run away."

He was one of the kindest and most loving men that ever walked the face of this earth. His life motto was truly: God first, family second and your word was your bond. His work ethic was 110% all the time.

His huge fear of frogs brought the family many laughs.

He is preceded in death by his beloved wife, Thelma and his parents Carl and Maggie Hutchins.

He is survived by his children: daughter, Teresa Hutchins-Graves and husband Jeff of Elkins; son, Brent Hutchins of Fayetteville; grandchildren, TaNa Bowen, Kyla Simpson, Chance Graves, Abby Hutchins, Keelee Hutchins and Kara Hutchins; great-grandchildren, Kapriel Bowen,

Eleanor Simpson, Hayes Simpson, Jase Graves and Stetson Graves and a very special nephew, Jason Robinson. His children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren were his pride and joy. They in turn all adored him.

Life will never be the same without our special person but we will forever hold the memories we made with him in our hearts.

Graveside service will be held at 2:00 pm, Saturday September 12, 2020 at Black Oak Cemetery in Winslow, under the direction of Moore's Chapel.

Washington County
Animal Shelter
(WCAS)

1) The WCAS Volunteer Team will be making custom Pet ID Tags at Harp's in West Fork on Sat, Oct 3rd from 9AM-1PM. Pet ID tags are engraved while you wait for a $5 per tag donation. Millions of pets go missing in the USA in any given year but only 22% get reunited with their owners when they don't have any type of ID's on them. Microchipping is the best by far, but even having an ID tag increases the chances to over 50% for these wayward dogs & cats finding their way home. So come to Harp's on Sat, Oct 3rd to get your 4 footed furry friends their pet tags. If you'd like info about $10 microchipping contact the Washington County Animal Shelter at 479-695-3450 Mon - Fri until 4:30pm.

2) Tractor Supply Store in Farmington will be hosting a VIP PetVet Clinic on Sat, Oct 24th from 1PM-2PM. Find out their services & prices at petvet.vippetcare.com or call them at 800-427-7973.

The WCAS Volunteer Team will be set up outside the store from 12p-3p to make custom Pet ID tags while you wait for a $5 donation per tag. You can also get info about WCAS's low cost spay/neuter program, how to get your pet microchipped for only $10 and loads of other helpful information. WCAS and the WCAS Volunteer Team are not associated with the VIP PetVet Clinics. The low cost vaccinations usually put on in November at the WC Sheriff's Office Annex is cancelled for this year due to Covid so if you need to update your pets' vaccinations this is an opportunity for you to do so without having an office visit fee.

The History of 'APRONS'

Found on the internet

I don't think our kids know what an apron is. The principal use of Grandma's apron was to protect the dress underneath because she only had a few. It was also because it was easier to wash aprons than dresses and aprons used less material. But along with that, it served as a potholder for removing hot pans from the oven.

It was wonderful for drying children's tears, and on occasion was even used for cleaning out dirty ears.

From the chicken coop, the apron was used for carrying eggs, fussy chicks and sometimes half-hatched eggs to be finished in the warming oven.

When company came, those aprons were ideal hiding places for shy kids...

And when the weather was cold Grandma wrapped it around her arms.

Those big old aprons wiped many a perspiring brow, bent over the hot wood stove.

Chips and kindling wood were brought into the kitchen in that apron.

From the garden, it carried all sorts of vegetables. After the peas had been shelled, it carried out the hulls.

In the fall, the apron was used to bring in apples that had fallen from the trees.

When unexpected company drove up the road, it was surprising how much furniture that old apron could dust in a matter of seconds.

When dinner was ready, Grandma walked out onto the porch, waved her apron and the men folk knew it was time to come in from the fields to dinner.

It will be a long time before someone invents something that will replace that 'old-time apron' that served so many purposes.

Send this to those who would know (and love) the story about Grandma's aprons.

REMEMBER:

Grandma used to set her hot baked apple pies on the window sill to cool. Her granddaughters set theirs on the window sill to thaw.

They would go crazy now trying to figure out how many germs were on that apron .

I don't think I ever caught anything from an apron - but love...

"Jesus Himself... walked along with them."

YOU DID IT TO ME!

A prized possession of mine is my father's English Lit Book used at Winslow High School nearly a century ago. I suppose its stories are too dated and moralistic for our cynical age. But this world would be a better place if we re-learned the old values of our fathers.

A poem in the book is The Vision of Sir Launfal by James Russell Lowell. It tells of a proud knight setting off to search for the Holy Grail. Launfal rides out in resplendent glory to seek the Grail in distant lands. By the road, he sees a beggar, and scornfully tosses him a coin, even as he recoils from the poor man's wretchedness.

After years of vain searching, Launfal returns a broken man. Again he meets the beggar. But Sir Launfal has changed. His own trials have taught him compassion. He shares his last crust of bread with the beggar and gives him water from a wooden bowl. At once, glory surrounds them. The poor meal becomes a Communion Supper and the crude bowl becomes the Holy Grail! The beggar is Jesus and the story is a reenactment of His words in Matthew 25.40: "As you did it to one of the least of these my brothers, you did it to me."

Two lessons of timeless significance emerge...

1) Christianity Is Concerned With Giving And Caring For Others. In Matthew 25, Jesus offers a glimpse of the Day of Judgment. People are rewarded or condemned on the basis of what they have done or failed to do for others! Some will earn the Lord's approval because they have tried to see others through His eyes and give as He gave. The genuineness of religion is largely gauged by concern for others. (James 1.22.)

2) What Is Done For Others Is Done For Christ. The poem expresses the conviction that in giving to and serving others we actually give to and serve Christ! Jesus Himself said as much and meant it sincerely! (Matthew 25.40.) If Christ were on earth today, what would you do for Him? Exactly what you are doing for others!

In the poem, Jesus says at the moment of revealing Himself:

*Not what we give, but what we share —
For the gift without the giver is bare;
Who gives himself with his alms feeds three —
Himself, his hungry neighbor, and Me.*

Our claim to serve Christ is no better than our willingness to serve others!
