Marnette Wood Trotter

July 29, 1949—February 27, 2025

Marnette “Bebe” Wood Trotter was born in Pine Bluff, AR to John (Captain Jack) Franklin Trotter and Marnette Wood Chesnutt Trotter on July 29, 1946. She passed away on February 27, 2025 in Fayetteville, AR from complications of surgery. She is survived by three brothers, Jack, Scott, and Timothy.

Bebe enjoyed living the rugged life alone in the mountainous woodlands of NW Arkansas with only the wildlife, raccoons, possums, deer, an occasional bear, lots of feral cats and her dog. There was always cat food out for any that wandered by. She’ll be missed by her “human” friends as well as her wildlife friends.

Marion Chapter of DAR Recognizes Maud Duncan

March is officially “Women’s History Month.” The focus of Women in American History is on the contributions of women, both past and present to American history. DAR Chapters are encouraged to select a notable woman from their state or community to honor who have contributed to or made a difference in their community. The woman could be a historical person or someone currently alive and worthy of recognition. Chapters are encouraged to choose a woman for this recognition by taking into consideration women who are, or have been, intellectual, educational, social, religious, political, scientific, or cultural innovators. The woman or women being honored may be DAR members, prospective DAR members, or non-members."

Winslow is very proud that the Marion Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution in Fayetteville, AR chose Maud Duncan to receive the Woman in American History Award. Ann Malkie, dressed in 1920 period dress as Maud Duncan, accepted the award.

From The Voice Of One On The Top Of Brentwood Mountain!

Revelation 14:6,7 And I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people, Saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters.

As I have listened to people express their thoughts and feelings about why we have so much evil in a book written in (1911) by a very Godly Lady named Ellen G, White. I find she has given us the best explanation I have ever heard or read. So (without your permission) over the next several months I will be sharing the chapter as follows:

Chap. 29 - The Origin of Evil To many minds the origin of sin and the reason for its existence are a source of great perplexity. They see the work of evil, with its terrible results of woe and desolation, and they question how all this can exist under the sovereignty of One who is infinite in wisdom, in power, and in love. Here is a mystery of which they find no explanation. And in their uncertainty and doubt they are blinded to truths plainly revealed in God's word and essential to salvation. There are those who, in their inquiries concerning the existence of sin, endeavor to search into that which God has never revealed; hence they find no solution of their difficulties; and such as are actuated by a disposition to doubt and cavil seize upon this as an excuse for rejecting the words of Holy Writ. Others, however, fail of a satisfactory understanding of the great problem of evil, from the fact that tradition and misinterpretation have obscured the teaching of the Bible concerning the character of God, the nature of His government, and the principles of His dealing with sin.

It is impossible to explain the origin of sin so as to give a reason for its existence. Yet enough may be understood concerning both the origin and the final disposition of sin to make fully manifest the justice and benevolence of God in all His dealings with evil. Nothing is more plainly taught in Scripture than that God was in no wise responsible for the entrance of sin; that there was no arbitrary withdrawal of divine grace, no deficiency in the divine government, that gave occasion for the uprising of rebellion. Sin is an intruder, for whose presence no reason can be given. It is mysterious, unaccountable; to excuse it is to defend it. Could excuse for it be found, or cause be shown for its existence, it would cease to be sin. Our only definition of sin is that given in the word of God; it is "the transgression of the law;" it is the outworking of a principle at war with the great law of love which is the foundation of the divine government.

Before the entrance of evil there was peace and joy throughout the universe. All was in perfect harmony with the Creator's will. Love for God was supreme, love for one another impartial. Christ the Word, the Only Begotten of God, was one with the eternal Father, -- one in nature, in character, and in purpose, -- the only being in all the universe that could enter into all the counsels and purposes of God. By Christ, the Father wrought in the creation of all heavenly beings. "By Him were all things created, that are in heaven, . . . whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers" (Colossians 1:16); and to Christ, equally with the Father, all heaven gave allegiance.

The law of love being the foundation of the government of God, the happiness of all created beings depended upon their perfect accord with its great principles of righteousness. God desires from all His creatures the service of love--homage that springs from an intelligent appreciation of His character. He takes no pleasure in a forced allegiance, and to all He grants freedom of will, that they may render Him voluntary service. (GC 492-493.2)

Should anyone not want to wait "for" the rest of the story" you can e-mail me at larrysmith12@juno.com for a free copy of the complete book I have a few left I will be glad to share.

See you next month
