Winslow Museum

By Renee Banks

The Winslow Museum is getting in the Christmas spirit this year. We are looking for Christmas related photos, ornaments, decorations, etc. for a new display in the museum. We are asking people in the community to loan us items for this display which will be in place from December 1, 2022 through January 15, 2023. If you have questions, please call us at the museum at 634-3903 or Renee Banks at 479-466-3312.

The museum is continually looking for family histories that we can put in the museum and share. If you are interested in sharing your family history or have someone else's family history please contact the museum or come by and see one of the museum ladies about sharing your story.

Your Water Department at Work

The Winslow Water System Water (WWS) Improvement Program is in Phase I. Using the American Rescue Plan Act (ARPA) funds, the staff has been replacing aged water meters. In the future, the majority of the new meters will be able to be read using hand-held devices while the meter readers drive by or walk by the meter. The meter replacement process is starting in the town downtown area. This will provide more accuracy and save time.

Velda's Words

By Velda Brotherton

By this time I have completed helping to complete three of Dusty Richard's books he hadn't finished before his death. One is the Blue Roan Colt, probably one of his best books. It was half finished with some notes on the remainder. I had so much joy in completing the story while I could hear his voice over my shoulder giving me pointers on Western lingo and history. We were good buddies and I know he would approve with what I did with the book. Then I tackled a series he had begun and had one book finished. So after poring over it and penciling in a few edits to fit my ideas for the next few books I sat down and wrote three more during the Pandemic when books weren't moving anywhere at all. I was pleased as was my editor with the direction in which I took the series. Texas Badge and Texas Lightning are now available on my list on Amazon. These are classical Westerns, unlike Blue Roan Colt, which is more of a semi-modern story of ranching in the early 1900's. I'm curious how Dusty's readers feel about what I've done with these books. Must be a bunch of you in the Winslow area who knew him and read all his previous books. Would be fun if you could let me know how I did, be it good or bad. Just don't be too harsh on me, I get my feelings hurt easily.

Enjoy the beautiful weather we're having, it won't last much longer. I am getting a few copies of the original Boston Mountain book from the original publisher who ran across them after he canceled Amazon sales and signed over rights to the book to me and Oghma Creative Media. I've had a few requests early on so if any one of you wanted a copy I'll only have these few until we get it republished, who knows when? Pandemic notwithstanding.

Best, Velda Brotherton.

...FALL IS HERE..BUT WILL IT STAY?

Cooler weather is nipping at our hills..

Time for firewood is here..finish gathering and get to splitting and stacking!! I hope everyone is enjoying the last of the flowers as it transitions into color..some rain would be appreciated to hold the leaves..and soak the ground!! The critters are moving more with temps dropping and the leaves, here and there..so keep an eye out in your travels!! I can hardly wait to see the Halloween decorations and fall wreaths and ribbons of celebration!

Keep finding joy in the little things.

A scent.. memories of times gone by..and making new ones along the way!! Pumpkin patches..corn mazes..haunted houses ..mini golf..bird watching.kayaking..hiking..camping without the BUGS!! Spiced cider..hot chocolate..warm fuzzy blankets..late night fishing(heck. Fishing ANYTIME)... Life changing porch talks.. The bestest coffee and good friends and the love and support of a great family..pick the guitar..sing..dance in the moonlight and feel refreshed!! Bring on the chilli..put on the stew..backyard BBQ'S are the thing to do!! Enjoy your surroundings..nature hugs back!!

Old ways...modern world....turn back time..and keep Slow Town SLOW FOR ALL OF US....AND OUR FUTURE!

The spirit of love lives on in Winslow.

..lets keep it alive!!

Many thanks to ALL of you behind the scenes..truly...

THANK YOU...

Coffee, Conversation, and Camaraderie

On Saturday mornings City Hall opens at 8:00 AM and the coffee pot is on. Several people have commented that they missed the Saturday morning Coffee Klatch at the Mercantile, although we have neither espresso nor cappuccino, we do have hot coffee for a donation of $1.00 a cup or $2.00 for a bottomless cup. We also have cold water for $1.00 a bottle and Coca Cola for $2.50 a bottle.

We look forward to seeing you!

15 Things It Took Me 60 Years to Learn

Dave Barry is a Pulitzer Prize-winning American author and columnist. He is also famous for his humorous quotes about things he has learned over the years.

Today, we would like to share some of Dave Barry's pearls of wisdom with you. We hope you enjoy these awesome quotes as much as we did.

1. Never under any circumstances take a sleeping pill and a laxative on the same night.
2. If you had to identify in one word the reason why the human race has not achieved, and never will achieve, its full potential, that word would be "meetings."
3. There is a very fine line between "hobby" and "mental illness."
4. People who want to share their religious views with you almost never want you to share yours with them.
5. You should not confuse your career with your life.
6. Nobody cares if you can't dance well. Just get up and dance.
7. Never lick a steak knife.
8. The most destructive force in the universe is gossip.
9. You will never find anybody who can give you a clear and compelling reason why we observe daylight savings time.
10. There comes a time when you should stop expecting other people to make a big deal about your birthday. That time is age 11.
11. The one thing that unites all human beings, regardless of age, gender, religion, economic status, or ethnic background, is that deep down inside we all believe that we are above-average drivers.
12. A person who is nice to you but rude to the waiter is not a nice person. (This is very important. Pay attention. Never fails.)
13. Your friends love you anyway.
14. Never be afraid to try something new. Remember that a lone amateur built the Ark. A large group of professionals built the Titanic.
15. Thought for the day: Men are like fine wine. They start out as grapes, and it's up to women to stomp on them until they turn into something acceptable to have dinner with.

LIVE well...LAUGH often...LOVE much

Ninety Years on top of the Boston Mountains with Sky-Vue Lodge

Sky-Vue: The People

By Janice Jorgenson

For me, (Janice) the essence of Sky-Vue is not the famous view, nor the cute cabins beside the road, nor the breakfasts, nor pizza. No, the heart of Sky-Vue is the relationships that have been forged through the fires of time. Since Sky-Vue has been “in the family” since the early 60's, we don't have a lot of people stopping by to say that they lived or worked here, but several times each year, we meet people who are grandchildren or distant relatives of those owners who have come before us. We have guests who grew up in Winslow and worked for the Buttolphs who stop by when they are in town visiting relatives. We have neighbors who worked here. Many beloved former employees, we now count as friends.

One such, is Karmen, our housekeeper, who has been with us for 20 years. Her girls, and now, her granddaughter works for us, making them the first multigenerational employees that we are aware of. Other former workers visit us frequently, and to many, we have become Grandma Janice and Grandpa Glenn to their children – a title that we wear with love and pride. There have been many employees who have come and gone over the years – over 120, as we can best remember who have worked for us. Some left after a few weeks. Some stayed for a season, and some were with us for several years, but all left an imprint on our lives.

Other workers who come to mind, are Annie, who was one of our first waitresses back when we did evening meals. She brought her younger siblings, Donnie and Cheryl, with her to work, and they washed dishes for us before we had a dishwasher. Later, Donnie became our pizza maker for several years, and Cheryl babysat our Caleb until a pizza job opened for her. We had the “3 amigos”, Lizzy, Jessica, and Stephanie, who came and worked pizzas, cleaned cabins, waited tables, and did dishes. Lizzy was here off and on as kid-sitter and girl Friday while we were remodeling the Lodge. Cheyenne made pizzas and did about anything else that we asked. She became such a part of our family, that she is now one of our “non-custodial adopted children.” We visit frequently, and she and her husband, Robert, who also worked here, are invited to all the family celebrations.

During my tenure as Spanish teacher at the Winslow High School, we would do Mexican Buffets to raise money for the kids' trips to a Spanish speaking country. The younger kids would help the older ones going on the trip to raise money, knowing that when their turn came, others would help them. Many kids who worked these nights are still very special to us, and another part of our “community” that was lost when these were discontinued after the closing of the school in 2005.

Finally, the relationships that we've enjoyed over the years with our guests have enriched our lives and the lives of our children. Guests who have come for years with their families became our children's playmates, and they are still in contact with some through social media. A special family of 4 sisters have been coming to Razorback games for years. They “adopted” our kids too, and have become the “Razorback Aunties” to especially our older children. They came to watch the boys' football games in high school and to cheer on the girls as they cheered for the games. Their faces light up when one of the our kids or grandchildren stop by when they are here. We have a several groups of quilters who have come over the years, but one group in particular has been coming since Caleb was a baby. They are the “Quilting Grandmas.” They have blessed us with homemade quilts for the us, the children, and grandchildren. When Caleb was about 2, we would go “visit” the quilters, and they would let him “drive” the machine by stepping on the “gas pedal.” He loved to see the machine go. Savannah would raid their trash scraps and come back to the Lodge with pieces that she had “made” to cover her dollies or Kitty Whiskers. Gauge had a never-tiring supply of adoring grandmas to listen to his pratter. We also had wood carvers who came and became dearly loved friends over time. One man, Don, came over 35 times. He gifted us many chip carving plates, which are proudly displayed in our dining room. He also made Caleb a wooden baby rattle, and another friend, Jim, brought Caleb a rocking horse that Caleb's daughter loves to ride 20 years later. The instructors, Janet Cordell and Adina Huckins, have become dear friends over the years. When their interests turned to doll carving, about 15 years ago, they brought Savannah along with their passion. After she was adopted, they worked together to carve her a “45 minute Hitty” doll so that they could gift her her first woodcarving. Greg and Fran Douglas have been gifting us beautiful carved Christmas ornaments for years which are treasured not only for the beautiful works of art, but for the friendships that they represent.

It's easy to get attached to the people who come and stay for a week at a time, but there have been many who stayed a night or two who left an impression on us as well. All in all, we are so fortunate to have been able to, as a Sky-Vue slogan from another time said, “Let me sit by the side of the road, and be a friend to man.”

YOU THINK ABOUT THAT

THE CHURCH

Continuing from my July article.

Matthew 5:16

“Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.”

In 1960's password games; every Friday night; the game show Hostess would signoff encouraging everyone to be sure and attend their favorite place of worship on Sunday morning. This was Hollywood in the 1960's. This is NOT Hollywood today! My question to all “THE CHURCH” Leaders, Pastors, Teachers etc. WHAT HAPPENED? Who is responsible that no Hollywood shows encourage people to worship on Sunday morning in our World Today? The servant whose master entrusted the one pound brought it back to him whole and intact. His master was not happy he had not produced. The Church today can't even equal the servant with the one pound. Your pound has decreased drastically. Your pound has decreased 30 percent in the last 40 years. You can't even bring your one pound back to God because it is 30 percent less than it was when he gave it to you. Shameful.

Ezekiel 22:30 “And I sought for a man among them, that should make up the hedge, and stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it: but I found none.” Is there a man or are there men today, that will step up and fulfil this scripture? I believe there will be a “Judgment” day. I believe you and I will be there to answer for “Our” own personal actions.

I'm Wesley Wood,

YOU THINK ABOUT THAT!
