CITY COUNCIL CORNER

We had great turnout at September's Winslow City Council meeting. First, we held a public meeting discussing bonds to fund construction of a new water tank. The council passed three ordinances to allow us to get a Principal Forgiveness Loan of $2,048,000 from the Arkansas Natural Resources Commission Clean Water Revolving Loan Fund. This loan will help fund a second water tank by the one on Mt. Gayler. The tank will help maintain service during power outages and maintenance of the existing tank. A $500,000 Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) from the Arkansas Community and Economic Development Program is helping to fund installation of a secondary tank next to our backflow tank.

Then, we heard from representatives of Oklahoma Gas + Electric (OG+E) Company, which supplies power to the Winslow area, about their plans to address the frequent long power outages we're experiencing. They moved their circuit maintenance schedule ahead by two years because there's so much vegetation growth in the easements. They will trim trees, replace poles, and hold a progress update meeting before the end of the year. A representative from the Arkansas Public Service Commission assured us that the PSC will verify that OG+E does what they say they will. Winslow Water System techs are already helping OG+E locate water lines to avoid accidents as OG+E has begun to replace poles from the Chester Turn to our pump station #2. After that, they will locate lines headed north.

OG+E tried last year to get federal cost-share funding to build a micro-grid power station in Winslow to provide four hours of emergency power while outage-causing damages are being repaired. Although Winslow is the only Arkansas city for which they sought funding, they were not awarded the grant. That federal funding was rescinded this year, but our State Senator and State Representative were also at the meeting and said they would look for state funding to help with micro-grid construction. Our Mayor has already been in touch with the Governor's office and our Representative in Washington D.C. about the project.

Everyone is welcome to attend City Council meetings on third Mondays at 6pm either in person at City Hall, or via WebEx online. Visit WinslowAR.com for more information. Everyone is also invited to Saturday morning Coffee Klatch gatherings at City Hall and, when the weather is good, to the Saturday Farmers Market downtown from 8:30 to 11:30.

WINSLOW PEOPLE WE HAVE LOST

LEE VON SUMMERS DEC 14, 1938 - SEP 16, 2025

Lee Von Summers, age 86, of Winslow, Arkansas, passed away peacefully on September 16, 2025. Born in St. David, Arizona, on December 14, 1938, to Robert and Jewel Mangum Summers, Lee lived a life defined by faith, service, and devotion to family.

In his early years, Lee proudly served in the United States Navy, attending Radioman Class A School and dedicating himself to his country.

In 1951, he moved with his family from Wilcox, Arizona, to Winslow, Arkansas, where he would spend the rest of his life surrounded by the beauty of the Ozarks and the warmth of his community. He was a faithful member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and his beliefs guided him throughout his life.

Lee was preceded in death by his parents and his brother, Robert (Bobby) Arnold Summers. He is survived by his loving wife of 61 years, Norma Lea Summers; his daughter Leadana Dempsey and her husband Shawn of Huntsville; three sons, Dean Carney and his wife Debbie of Winslow; Rion Dwane Summers and his wife Kelina of Bella Vista; and David Grant Summers and his wife Toni of Rogers. He is also survived by his sisters Connie Wright Ferris of Phoenix, Arizona, and Ellen Center of Winslow, Arkansas; nine grandchildren, seventeen great-grandchildren, and two great-great-grandchildren.

Lee was a man of quiet strength, unwavering faith, and deep love for his family. He will be remembered for his gentle spirit, his dedication to those he loved, and the life he built in the hills of Arkansas. He was also a passionate sports fan, with a lifelong love for Razorback football, the Kansas City Chiefs, and Cardinals baseball—teams that brought him joy and excitement throughout the years.

the Arkansas State Highway Department, retiring after 36 years of committed public service. His work helped shape the roads that connect communities across the state, and his legacy lives on in every mile.

A man of deep faith, Clifford was a devoted member of Bunyard Community Church, where he found fellowship and purpose. He was preceded in death by his beloved wife of 40 years, Inez Thornsberry, who passed in 2013. Their bond was one of enduring love and quiet strength. The Spiritual Pen

From The Voice Of One On The Top Of Brentwood Mountain!

Revelation 14:6,7

And I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people, Saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters.

The same spirit that Chap. 29 - The Origin of Evil. Continuing on starting with (Pg. 501.3)

When the great sacrifice had been consummated, Christ ascended on high, refusing the adoration of angels until He had presented the request: "I will that they also, whom Thou hast given Me, be with Me where I am." John 17:24. Then with inexpressible love and power came forth the answer from the Father's throne: "Let all the angels of God worship Him." Hebrews 1:6. Not a stain rested upon Jesus. His humiliation ended, His sacrifice completed, there was given unto Him a name that is above every name. {GC 501.3}

Now the guilt of Satan stood forth without excuse. He had revealed his true character as a liar and a murderer. It was seen that the very same spirit with which he ruled the children of men, who were under his power, he would have manifested had he been permitted to control the inhabitants of heaven. He had claimed that the transgression of God's law would bring liberty and exaltation; but it was seen to result in bondage and degradation. {GC 502.1}

Satan's lying charges against the divine character and government appeared in their true light. He had accused God of seeking merely the exaltation of Himself in requiring submission and obedience from His creatures, and had declared that, while the Creator exacted self-denial from all others, He Himself practiced no self-denial and made no sacrifice. Now it was seen that for the salvation of a fallen and sinful race, the Ruler of the universe had made the greatest sacrifice which love could make; for "God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto Himself." 2 Corinthians 5:19. It was seen, also, that while Lucifer had opened the door for the entrance of sin by his desire for honor and supremacy, Christ had, in order to destroy sin, humbled Himself and become obedient unto death. {GC 502.2}

God had manifested His abhorrence of the principles of rebellion. All heaven saw His justice revealed, both in the condemnation of Satan and in the redemption of man. Lucifer had declared that if the law of God was changeless, and its penalty could not be remitted, every transgressor must be forever debarred from the Creator's favor. He had claimed that the sinful race were placed beyond redemption and were therefore his rightful prey. But the death of Christ was an argument in man's behalf that could not be overthrown. The penalty of the law fell upon Him who was equal with God, and man was free to accept the righteousness of Christ and by a life of penitence and humiliation to triumph, as the Son of God had triumphed, over the power of Satan. Thus God is just and yet the justifier of all who believe in Jesus. {GC 502.3} But it was not merely to accomplish the redemption of man that Christ came to the earth to suffer and to die. He came to "magnify the law" and to "make it honorable." Not alone that the inhabitants of this world might regard the law as it should be regarded; but it was to demonstrate to all the worlds of the universe that God's law is unchangeable. Could its claims have been set aside, then the Son of God need not have yielded up His life to atone for its transgression. The death of Christ proves it immutable. And the sacrifice to which infinite love impelled the Father and the Son, that sinners might be redeemed, demonstrates to all the universe--what nothing less than this plan of atonement could have sufficed to do--that justice and mercy are the foundation of the law and government of God. {GC 503.1}

In the final execution of the judgment it will be seen that no cause for sin exists. When the Judge of all the earth shall demand of Satan, "Why hast thou rebelled against Me, and robbed Me of the subjects of My kingdom?" the originator of evil can render no excuse.

Every mouth will be stopped, and all the hosts of rebellion will be speechless. {GC 503.2} The cross of Calvary, while it declares the law immutable, proclaims to the universe that the wages of sin is death. In the Savior's expiring cry, "It is finished," the death knell of Satan was rung. The great controversy which had been so long in progress was then decided, and the final eradication of evil was made certain. The Son of God passed through the portals of the tomb, that "through death He might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil." Hebrews 2:14. Lucifer's desire for self-exaltation had led him to say: "I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: . . . I will be like the Most High." God declares: "I will bring thee to ashes upon the earth, . . . and never shalt thou be any more." Isaiah 14:13, 14; Ezekiel 28:18, 19. When "the day cometh, that shall burn as an oven; . . . all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the Lord of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch." Malachi 4:1. {GC 503.3} Should anyone not want to wait for 'the rest of the story' you can e-mail me at larrysmith12@juno.com for a free copy of the complete book I have a few left I will be glad to share.
