Tidbits From The Hilltop

By Ann Tomlinson-Malkie

Howdy once again. So last month I spoke too soon about the weather. Who would have known that due to all the ice and snow that I would have been stuck on my hilltop for a total of seven days in February because the roads were too iced over to drive down. Fortunately I had stocked up on bread and peanut butter. Yum! I also had my staple – Oreo cookies. I was thinking about Oreo cookies the other night and I think that is about the only “treat” that I can remember that they really haven’t messed with other than making you buy the “double-stuffed” in order to get the “regular” cookies we used to get when I was younger. They are still good but I don’t recommend that you read the ingredients. I was trying to figure out why I really don’t care much for restaurants anymore. It is not that I don’t like the food (it doesn’t appear to taste the same as it used to) but I really don’t like the calories listed on the menus. It really takes away from the joy of treating yourself. Anyway, it does for me. Hope you have a fun March. See ya’ll on Arbor Day. Have some fun! Ann

Winslow Visitor’s Center and Museum

The next Museum Meeting will be on April 12th at 3:00 at the Museum. There will not be a meeting in March.

In the theme of Winslow History, the museum would love to have copies of family histories and stories of the early settlers and residents, and histories of the early businesses in the Winslow area. If you have stories and don’t know where to begin telling them, stop by the City Visitor’s Center/Winslow Museum and we’ll help you get started. The Winslow area is so rich in history we do not want to lose it. Maybe you have old pictures that would enhance the museum collection, we would love to scan them and add them to our scrapbooks. Within Winslow would love to do an article on “Do you know where this is?” or “Do you recognize these people?” You can either email the picture to “withinwinslow@gmail.com” or stop by the Museum and have it scanned.

Muriel Shipley and Tilly Clark, daughters of Fleeta Clark, donated her scrapbooks of obituaries collected from the late 80’s, 90’s and early 2000’s. The Museum has just finished sorting them and including them in the Museum Obituary Books.

One thing that her extraordinary hardships in life could never drive out of her was the twinkle in her eye, like that of a playful child. She loved to talk about lying in the yard under the stars with her sisters and tickling each other's feet. Through their long lives, she and her sisters still had great love for each other.

Even though you knew you were talking to someone with the wisdom that comes from years, you were also talking to someone who could still laugh, who could still see the wonder in the world, and loved watching a kitten play, or a great-grandchild learn to take her first steps.

Her indomitable spirit is proof that there is something after this life. A light as bright as hers can't be snuffed out. This world is a little less bright now, but she will be part of making the next one that much more beautiful.

Funeral services were held at 10:00 AM on Monday, February 21, 2022 at First Baptist Church West Fork.

Interment was in Blackburn Cemetery in West Fork.

Leona Francis Courtney Akers

May 5, 1927~February 13, 2022

Leona Francis Akers, 94, of Winslow, AR ended life's journey peacefully in her sleep on the morning of February 13th, 2022 at Siloam Springs Rehab in Siloam Springs, Arkansas, after a sudden illness.

She was born on the family homestead in Winslow, AR on May 5th, 1927, daughter of the late Charles Russell and Lillian Ruby Courtney. She was preceded in death by her brothers Conrad Courtney, Charles Courtney, Carlton Courtney, Earl Courtney, sisters Shirley Pool, Norma Hill, Marilyn Lindsey, Charlene Lockett, daughters Brenda Weaver and Rita Hembra, her Son David Thurber, and her grandson Jeremy Shelley.

She is survived by her sisters Randolyn Kilpatrick, Jeannie Hodges, brother John Courtney, son Alan Thurber, grandchildren Jamie Hankins, Bethanie Wight, Rachel Steward, Rebecca Burton, Courtney Hembra, Michael Thurber, Caleb Hembra, Alexis, and numerous great-grandchildren.

Leona was the strongest, most unbreakable spirit you've ever met. Her life story is marked with extreme painful hardships, from childhood all the way through old-age. As a young child, a high fever completely destroyed her hearing in one ear and severely damaged the other. She had to endure not the death of one, but three of her children. Many parts of her story would break most people, much less, all of it. Through it all, though, she never lost her faith or her joy.

One thing you could count on when you saw Leona was a big smile and concern for how you're doing. If you asked her about herself, everything was always "just fine", even if it wasn't. Apologies to Margaret Thatcher, but Leona Akers was the true "Iron Lady", and what it truly means to be part of the greatest generation.

ROSES & THISTLES

ROSES TO THE WATER DEPARTMENT

This is your water department workers doing just a few of the jobs they face each day. Sometimes they have to stand on their heads to read a meter. Other times they are from ankle deep to knee deep fixing leaks or running new pipe to keep every one in water. Let's give them all a BIG Thank You and a round of applause for the messy job they do everyday.
